

By agreeing to contribute on-line content for Rife magazine you are giving Watershed permission to host your content on the Rife website and any social media channel we (Watershed) wishes to. You keep the rights to content but we can place it where we see fit. We can quote from it where we think is appropriate. We will credit you and give you a profile page on Rife magazine's website that links to your own website, along with a biography. If you want to use the content elsewhere, let us know and make sure there's a credit to us that says the content originally appeared on Rife magazine, along with a link.

We won't change your work. We won't sell it in any way. We won't use it without crediting you. We will promote it as widely as we can. We will make it as prominent as possible on Rife magazine. We will give you a platform to showcase your stuff. We will list you as one of the contributors to Rife magazine, should you want to add this on your CV.

Should you or we choose to terminate this agreement we will stop using the content provided by you and remove it from our channels as soon as we can. Please give us 10 days from letting us know to make this happen.

The following terms and conditions apply to this agreement. Please tick the box below to confirm that you have read, understand them and agree to adhere to them.
